Contribution of alumni to the Growth and development of the institute:

- They have supplied the Institution with evaluative estimation about the functions of the Institution especially the teaching-learning and practice teaching.
- From their remarks, it was possible to estimate the proficiency, teaching skills and dedication of Teacher Educators.
- Since most of them are the heads of the practising schools, proper evaluation of the teacher trainee is the quality of the practice lessons and lesson guidance of the teacher trainee is made.
- Validity, reliability and objectivity are vital issues related to the internal assessment of the teacher trainees. No doubt, those characteristics should be statistically determined. Yet, it is felt that remarks of the alumni do provide satisfactory information about the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threat to internal assessment.
- Some of alumni had suggested new areas for outreach programmes such as social work in slum areas, anti-AIDS movements in slum areas, organization of lesson weeks in the adivasi schools in which the best teacher trainees would teach, and innovative teaching-learning practices. Thus, the alumni had provided the educational feedback to the Institution. It is useful for quality management.

THANK YOU
